

What is a Family-School Compact?

Teachers, parents and students must work together to ensure success for all students. This family school compact is an agreement that will serve as a tool to help all students achieve the best education possible.

Jointly Developed

The parents and staff of Raceland Lower Elementary School developed this Family-School Compact for Achievement.

Parents are welcome to contribute comments at any time.

For more information about the Pre-K Compact, please contact your child's teacher at (985) 537-6837.

Activities to Build Partnerships

Parents will be invited to participate in activities throughout the school year. Such as:

- Pre-K Parent Activities
- Home Learning Activities
- Volunteering in the classroom and school

Communication about Student Learning

We are committed to communicating with families about student learning. Some of the ways you can expect us to communicate are:

- Parent/teacher conferences
- Weekly newsletters
- Take home folder
- Behavior calendar

Teachers, Parents, Students – Together for Success

In The Classroom

1B

The Pre-K Teachers are responsible for the educational growth and well-being of each student. Some of the teachers' responsibilities will be to:

- Provide developmentally appropriate experiences for young children.
- Provide a well-managed classroom so all students have the opportunity to learn.
- Have an open line of communication with families by sending home weekly newsletters and scheduling parent/teacher conferences.
- Provide home learning opportunities.

At Home

2

The Pre-K parents/guardians are responsible for providing a home environment that will encourage your child to learn. Some of the parents' responsibilities will be to:

- Make sure your child attends school all day, every day, except for illnesses.
- Check take home folder daily!
- Read every day to your child.
- Attend parent/teacher conferences.
- Utilize information given by the teacher to help your child reach academic goals.

Students

3

The Pre-K student is responsible for:

- Beginning each day ready to learn.
- Following school rules and routines.
- Showing self-control.
- Respecting others and the school environment.
- Participating in classroom activities and discussions.
